Re: People v. Jonathan Allen and Ina Rogers

Today, Defendant Ina Rogers appeared before the Honorable William Pendergast in Department 11 of the Solano County Superior Court. Defendant Ina Rogers had previously been arrested and posted bail on a misdemeanor charge of child endangerment based upon the unhealthy and unsafe living conditions inside her home. After the children were removed from the home, further investigation revealed additional crimes had occurred in the home. Today, the Court granted the People's motion to amend that complaint to add 9 additional felony counts of Child Abuse/Child Endangerment. The Court set bail on the additional charges at $495,000 and the defendant was remanded into custody.

Defendant Jonathan Allen appeared in court on Monday, May 14, 2018, where he entered a plea of not guilty to all charges in the Felony Complaint, specifically seven counts of Torture and nine counts of Felony Child Abuse/Child Endangerment. The Court set bail in his matter at 5.2 million dollars.

Both Defendants Ina Rogers and Jonathan Allen are scheduled to return to court on May 24, 2018, for a readiness conference and May 25, 2018, for a preliminary hearing.
