

RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS ARISING FROM WRITTEN COMMENTS SUBMITTED BY DEADLINE AMENDMENT 1 TO RFP GUIDELINES

General Questions

1. Is there any disadvantage to bidding as a corporation that utilizes subcontractors so long as all of our providers meet or exceed POST standards and are highly trained, experienced, and skilled in this work?
No. A corporation that may employ additional qualified persons or subcontractors may submit a Qualifications Statement. That being said, you must submit resumes for all subcontractors and copies of their psychologist licenses at the time of submission of the Qualifications Statement.

RFQ Guidelines and Instruction Questions

2. Is it acceptable to submit a PHS myself and not require subcontractors to also complete the PHS?
No. In accordance with section 2.4 of the RFQ Guidelines and Instructions, the Qualifier must complete the Personal History Statement and submit along with the Qualifications Statement; however, the County will accept a completed PHS from the primary Qualifier at time of submission by 5:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time, Tuesday, Sept 23, 2014, and the remaining PHS from all subcontractors must be received by 5:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time, Tuesday Oct. 7, 2014.
