

COUNTY OF SOLANO

HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST (SENIOR)

DEFINITION

Performs complex, professional level personnel work in employee recruitment, selection, position classification, employee relations, training, employee benefits, workers' compensation risk management and/or affirmative action; conducts analytical studies into personnel and human resources issues; provides staff support to the County's management team.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is the advanced journey/or lead level class in the Human Resources Analyst series. The Human Resources Analyst (Senior) performs the more complex or difficult work assigned to the series and may lead the work of others. Incumbents are expected to work independently in providing personnel services to an assigned set of departments and in performing the tasks necessary to fulfill human resource needs. Incumbents may coordinate an assigned function (e.g., testing, training programs, automation) and work as generalists or in specialist teams. Incumbents provide staff support to the Civil Service Commission, the Board and the County's management team on a broad range of personnel and human resources issues. The Human Resources Analyst (Senior) is distinguished from the Human Resources Analyst (Principle) in that the latter is responsible for mentoring and developing staff in addition to specializing in one or more Human Resources areas.
