INFORMATION RELEASE Information Sought in Bar Fight

The Solano County Sheriff's Office Investigation's Bureau is seeking the public's help in identifying a suspect wanted in connection with a bar fight that left one man unconscious with a major head injury.

On Saturday, March 5th, 2016 at approximately 1:19 am, deputies responded to the report of a physical fight outside of Thompson's Corner Saloon, located at 2147 Cordelia Road, Fairfield. Responding deputies found a 39-year old Fairfield man unconscious but breathing. They rendered medical aid until emergency medical personnel arrived on-scene. The victim was transported to an area hospital for immediate treatment.

As of March 9th, 2016, the victim remains unconscious in a local hospital. The victim suffered a significant brain injury as a result of a fall, after being struck by the suspect during the fight.

The suspect is described as a white male adult in his mid to late 20's with a bald or shaved head, approximately 5-feet 9-inches tall with a medium to heavy build and a tattoo on his right elbow.

The suspect's vehicle is described as a dark gray two-tone Ford Explorer or Expedition with stock wheels. (Possibly 2006 or similar model year)

Sheriff's detectives obtained video surveillance images of the suspect and an associated vehicle (see attached). The Solano County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's assistance in identifying the man and vehicle seen in these images. If you have any information, please contact Detective Andrew Hendrix at 707-784-7058. Callers may also remain anonymous by calling Crime Stoppers at (707) 644-STOP (7867).
