INFORMATION RELEASE

Arrest Made At Solano Community College Vallejo Campus

On Friday, June 10th, 2016 at approximately 07:05am, a Sheriff's Security Officer for the Solano College's Vallejo Center, discovered blood in one of the offices on the first floor of the facility. The college was locked down for security purposes and additional Sheriff's Office deputies responded to the campus to investigate the incident.

The investigation revealed a college employee brought a handgun on campus. It appeared the employee was fixing or cleaning the handgun when it discharged, striking the employee in his hand. The employee drove himself to Kaiser, Vallejo for medical treatment and was released after receiving treatment.

The employee, 32 year old David Reese Jr. of Fairfield, was later contacted, arrested and booked at the Solano County Jail for bringing a firearm on campus and carrying a loaded unregistered firearm.

The Sheriff's Office would like to remind you that bringing a firearm onto a college campus is a crime. This type of crime is taken seriously and any individual discovered bringing a weapon onto a campus will be charged criminally.

Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to call Lt. Brian Travis Campus Sheriff's Office, Solano Community College at 707-864-7224. Callers may also remain anonymous by calling Crime Stoppers at (707) 644-STOP (7867).
