

Solano County California

Hello Benicia, Fairfield, and Vallejo,

Solano County will be in a shelter at home order starting tomorrow (Thursday December 17, 2020) at 11:59 PM. This will mean that outdoor dining will no longer be allowed, and retail establishments will need to operate only at 20% capacity. There are other restrictions as well. You can find those here: <https://covid19.ca.gov/stay-home-except-for-essential-needs/>

The coronavirus is spreading too fast in our county, state, and country. I know how hard this is for all of us. It breaks my heart to see our community facing these daunting challenges. Our people are hurting, our small businesses are struggling, and the virus is infecting too many of our residents. Now is the time for all of us to work together to stop the spread of the virus and support our community.

I would encourage all of us to support our small businesses during this time. They need our support now more than ever. If you order takeout or delivery, please make an extra effort to get food from a local restaurant. If you need holiday gifts, please purchase unique items and/or gift certificates from a locally owned shop. Here are resources for supporting our small businesses during this time:
