INFORMATION RELEASE

Two Suspects In-Custody For Rural Dixon Assault Solano County Sheriff's Office

March 19, 2010

On March 18, 2010, at approximately 7:50 PM, deputies responded to the report of an assault that had just occurred on the 7200 block of Tremont Road, in Dixon. The victim had been struck numerous times with a lead pipe and strangled by a suspect he identified as 42-year old Clint Mistler from Dixon. The victim was transported to Sutter-Davis Hospital and treated for his injuries. Deputies notified local law enforcement agencies of the crime that occurred, as well as the identification of the wanted suspect in this case.

Later in the evening, the Dixon Police Department reported locating a possible suspect vehicle in the parking lot of the Comfort Suites Hotel in Dixon. Clint Mistler was located in a nearby hotel room and taken into custody on charges including attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, conspiracy, and possession of methamphetamine. Belinda Mistler, a 40-year old Dixon resident was taken into custody for possession of methamphetamine and being an accessory to the assault. Both suspects were booked into the Solano County Jail for the indicated violations.
