Step 5: Objectives and Steps

1. Encourage females to apply for vacancies in the Officials/Administrators, Technicians, Skilled Craft and Service/Maintenance job categories.

- a. The County will continue to focus on recruiting the most qualified and diverse applicants available with an emphasis on the respective underutilized groups herein.
- b. The Department of Human Resources will review the recruitment and selection process to determine whether any step in the selection process for the underutilized groups may have had significant impact on the screening and selection process.

2. Identify any barriers in recruitment process that might deter White, Hispanic, Black, American Indian and Asian males from applying for Officials/Administrators, Professionals, Technicians, Administrative Support job categories.

- a. The County will continue to focus on recruiting the most qualified and diverse applicants available with an emphasis on the male population and respective underutilized groups herein.
- b. The Department of Human Resources will review the recruitment and selection process to determine whether any step in the selection process for the underutilized groups may have had significant impact on the screening and selection process.

3. Evaluate recruitment and retention processes and efforts.

- a. The County will continue to participate in job fairs, career days and youth programs.
- b. The County will continue utilizing social media and online job fairs to reach underutilized groups.
- c. Building on the Countys already established practice of providing exit interview questionnaire with the option to meet with staff from the Department of Human Resources, the Department of Human Resources will review the exit interview results to determine how its employment policies may affect the recruitment and retention of underutilized groups.
- d. The Department of Human Resources will continue to review job descriptions to ensure that they are job-related/consistent with the respective positions that are being filled.
- e. The County will continue to provide every new employee, volunteer and unpaid intern with information, during the new hire orientation of appropriate and inappropriate workplace behaviors, which includes providing a copy of Countys EEO Harassment/Discrimination Policy.
- f. The Department of Human Resources will continue to provide interviewing techniques trainings to managers and supervisors who have responsibilities in the interviewing and hiring process.
- g. The Department of Human Resources will continue to have a diverse oral interview panel.

4. Identify any barriers in recruitment that might deter White, Hispanic, Black, American Indian and Asian females from applying for protective services/sworn positions.

- a. The Department of Human Resources will send out survey to female sworn officers to find out where and how they learned about the opportunity to become a sworn officer, and to inquire whether anything in the recruitment or training process might be amended to encourage more females to become and/or promote to a sworn officers classification. Based on the survey results, the Department of Human Resources will examine its outreach and training efforts and develop a revised outreach program within six months of the survey report. Furthermore, the survey results will be shared with the departments with sworn position allocations.
- b. To attract recruits, the County will advertise job openings specific to publications and groups that focus on female and minority groups seeking protective services/sworn positions.
- c. The County will continue to provide job announcements to Solano Community College, Travis Air Force Base, Solano Workforce Investment Board (WIB) and careers in government websites, as well as other community groups specific to the underutilized groups.

Step 6: Internal Dissemination

1. Distribute by email and a hard-copy of the EEOP Utilization Report to the District Attorneys Office and the Department of Human Resources recruitment staff.
2. Post a copy of the District Attorneys Office EEOP Utilization Report on the EEO Office intranet site and the in-house electronic communication network.
3. Send an email notification to the District Attorneys Office employees notifying them that the EEOP Utilization Report is accessible and available on the County's intranet and internet sites. The County's respective websites will have information on how to obtain a copy of the report (e.g., by requesting a copy from the EEO Office or at the Department of Human Resources), including the ability to download a copy.
4. Include a bound copy of the EEOP Utilization Report among the materials displayed in the lobby of the Department of Human Resources office.

Step 7: External Dissemination

1. Post a downloadable copy of the EEOP Utilization Report on the District Attorneys Office and Department of Human Resources public website, and provide information stating a copy may be obtained from the EEO Office, at the Department of Human Resources or at the District Attorneys Office.
2. Notify all contractors and vendors that provide service with the Department of Human Resources that a copy of the EEOP Utilization Report.

County of Solano, District Attorney's Office
Equal Employment Opportunity Plan (EEOP)
January 2018

Step 4b: Narrative Underutilization Analysis

An occupational job category is considered underutilized, if the representation of employees in the County's workforce is less than eighty percent (80%) of the representation of those groups in the labor force. The narrative below is the utilization analysis which identifies the following areas of such underutilization as referenced in the Solano County – Utilization Analysis Chart January 2018. Please see Exhibit A.

Males are underutilized in seven (7) of the job categories, as follows:

- a. White: Professionals, Technicians, Administrative Support
- b. Hispanic/Latino: Officials/Administrators, Professionals, Technicians, Administrative Support, Skilled Craft, Service/Maintenance
- c. Black/African American: Officials/Administrators, Administrative Support, Skilled Craft
- d. American Indian or Alaska Native: Officials/Administrators, Professionals, Administrative Support, Administrative Support, Skilled Craft, Service/Maintenance
- e. Asian: Officials/Administrators, Professionals, Technicians, Protective Services-Sworn, Administrative Support, Service/Maintenance

Females are underutilized in six (6) of the job categories, as follows:

- a. White: Protective Services-Sworn, Skilled Craft
- b. Hispanic/Latino: Protective Services-Sworn, Skilled Craft, Service/Maintenance
- c. Black or African American: Protective Services-Sworn, Skilled Craft, Service/Maintenance
- d. American Indian or Alaska Native: Officials/Administrators, Protective Services-Sworn, Service/Maintenance
- e. Asian: Officials/Administrators, Technicians, Protective Services-Sworn, Administrative Support, Skilled Craft, Service/Maintenance

The Solano County's (County) Department of Human Resources conducts the recruitment for the District Attorney's Office. In keeping with the County and the District Attorney's Office's commitment to having a workforce that reflects the community it serves, both offices will examine its recruitment and retention practices to see if there may be ways to attract and target underutilized groups. It is the County and District Attorney's Office goal to increase representation in these areas and ensure that underrepresented groups receive equal opportunity to secure employment and advancement. Recruitment efforts will include, but not limited to, specialized publications, advertising in specific geographical areas and outreach to underutilized populations using the County's neighborhood centers, colleges, and other governmental agencies as information dissemination sources.
